

Internal examination of water pipes

There is no specific legislation dealing exclusively with the inspection of internal water pipes of fire safety systems in Belgium.

However, various regulations and standards indirectly influence the inspection and maintenance of these systems.

Your tailor-made solution

Your result

Please note

In which situation?